Infant of Prague Shrine

Happy Feast of the Presentation of the Lord! As the Director of the Shrine of the Infant of Prague, I am honored to write these few words and to celebrate the 12 Noon Mass for this great feast day.

Since 1946, the Shrine of the Infant of Prague has supported the mission and ministry of the Dominican Friars. It began at our parish in New Haven, CT, and recently found its new home here at St. Vincent Ferrer Church. The venerable wood-carved statue from our church in Connecticut is newly enshrined in a prominent location here in what I have often argued is the most beautiful church in North America. While the Divine Infant relinquishes its former location by the confessionals to St. Therese of Lisieux, the Holy Child now has the prominent location near the shrine to our Lady of Fatima. I hope you agree with me that it is a delightful addition to our beloved church!

We come now to the conclusion of the Solemn Novena to the Infant of Prague, which began on January 25th and ends on February 2nd, the patronal feast of the Presentation of the Lord in the Temple. As we recall the great feast of St. Joseph and Our Blessed Mother presenting the Sacred Infant in the hallowed walls of the Temple, let us receive Him into our hearts this day like Saints Simeon and Anna, and welcome the Christ Child's new shrine into these sacred walls of St. Vincent Ferrer Church.

Historically, this Sunday's Feast of the Presentation marked the end of the Christmas season. Mary and Joseph brought Jesus to the Temple in Jerusalem forty days after his birth to perform the prescribed sacrifice of purification. For this reason, the Vatican's crèche remains at St. Peter's until this feast day, and many churches, including St. Vincent Ferrer and St. Catherine of Siena, do the same.

This ancient holy day used to be called the "Feast of Encounter" and was common to both the East and West. Simeon greets the Christ Child for Whom he had waited his entire life. The prophetess Anna proclaims the Divine Infant for Whom she too had been waiting. The Old Covenant meets the New Covenant in God Incarnate in His Temple. It is a new and universal hope, "a Light to the Nations" in Simeon's proclamation at this encounter.

May you encounter Christ anew in this great mystery of the Incarnation come as a Child as we celebrate today's feast and enshrine the Infant of Prague in His new place of prominence!

St. Dominic founded the Order of Preachers to proclaim the goodness of the Incarnation everywhere we went. For Dominicans, the Night Prayer of the Church – Compline – holds a special place because when friars would go out preaching, they would all return in time for Compline. Over the years, it took on a greater prominence in the Order, complete with special hymns, psalm tones, and processions. Part of Compline is the Nunc Dimittis, that is, the canticle that Simeon sang at the Presentation in the Temple, "Lord, now you let your servant go in peace; your word has been fulfilled. My own eyes have seen the salvation which you have prepared in the sight of every people – a light to reveal you to the nations and the glory of your people Israel!" The friars sing this canticle every night in these hallowed walls. How fitting that the Infant is here in our midst!

May this new and venerable image of the Christ Child be a blessing to each and every one of you. The arrival of this Shrine means that the Dominican Friars have a renewed commitment to pray for you and for all who are enrolled in the Shrine of the Infant of Prague. With these additional Masses, prayers, and devotions, may all of you experience the fruits of these prayers in honor of Our Lord's Incarnation. God bless you all.

MUSIC NOTES

The elaborate Offertory Procession for Candlemas allows for an extended motet. So, the Schola will sing one of the great masterworks of 20th-century Catholic music: Charles Stanford's Magnificat in B Flat, Op. 164. Stanford composed and dedicated the Magnificat to his long-time friend Sir Charles Hubert Hastings Parry in the fall of 1918, although Parry died before the work was published the following year. Befitting a grand liturgical a cappella motet, Stanford adopted traditional elements of Renaissance style such as imitation and antiphony (when one choir/group of voices sings in alternation with the other); he looked as well to the florid intricacy and counterpoint of J.S. Bach's motets (particularly Singet dem Herrn). A parallel also exists with Bach's Magnificat in D Major, BWV 243, whose vigorous opening and closing music seems to re-echo in the corresponding pages of Stanford's work.

On the Memorial of St. Blaise, Bishop and Martyr, a blessing of throats will be offered at every Mass on this day. This relates to the tradition that while St. Blaise was in prison for refusing to renounce his faith, he cured a boy who was choking to death on a fish bone. It is an appropriate day to ask the Lord's healing for sicknesses, especially diseases of the throat.

It will be held mostly at St. Vincent's, with lunch served in St. Vincent's Lower Church. Sign up at tinyurl.com/winter-retreat-2025. Please email youngadults@svsc.info if you have any questions and/or dietary restrictions.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 12 NOON Solemn Mass for World Day of Prayer

On the Saturday nearest the World Day of the Sick (which is February 11, also the Memorial of Our Lady of Lourdes), there will be a Solemn Votive Mass of Our Lady of Lourdes at 12 NOON at St. Catherine of Siena. The Mass will include a sprinkling with Lourdes Water and a blessing for the sick and for healthcare workers. Many of our Dominican Friars serve as chaplains in the hospitals surrounding St. Catherine of Siena through the Dominican Healthcare Ministry. Every Thursday, these chaplains sponsor a Holy Hour following the 5:15 PM Mass at St. Catherine of Siena at which we pray for the sick and those who care for them.

As Catholics, it is our duty to pray for the sick: kindness (benignity) is a Fruit of the Holy Spirit which may be expressed by visiting the sick (a Corporal Work of Mercy) and praying for the afflicted (a Spiritual Work). Consider joining us for Mass and Holy Hour or offering a private prayer for those sick. Following Mass there will be a light reception in St. Joseph's Hall.

The Schola Cantorum will sing:

Missa Veni in hortum meum
by Orlando di Lasso (1532-1594)

Ave Maria á 5
by Jacob Handl (1550-1591)

Ave Regina, mater regis angelorum
by Jacob Regnart (c.1540-1599)
