New Saints Among Us

Recently, we have been blessed to receive a number of additional relics at St. Vincent's. God, in His providence, seems to want to bring these saints to us, and for this I am grateful. Hopefully, these saints will be powerful intercessors for us and those who visit our churches.

THE APOSTLES

When Bishop Whalen saw our Great Reliquary last winter, he immediately told me that he wanted to give us a relic of the Apostles that he had been given but that needed a fitting home. We owe so much of our faith to the work of these disciples of Christ and builders of the Church. These went to the ends of the world to preach the Gospel. Through their passing on of the faith, it was eventually handed on to us.

Their relic is in the Great Reliquary in the baptistry at St. Vincent's on the right side and just to the right of the silver reliquary holding the relic of the true Cross.

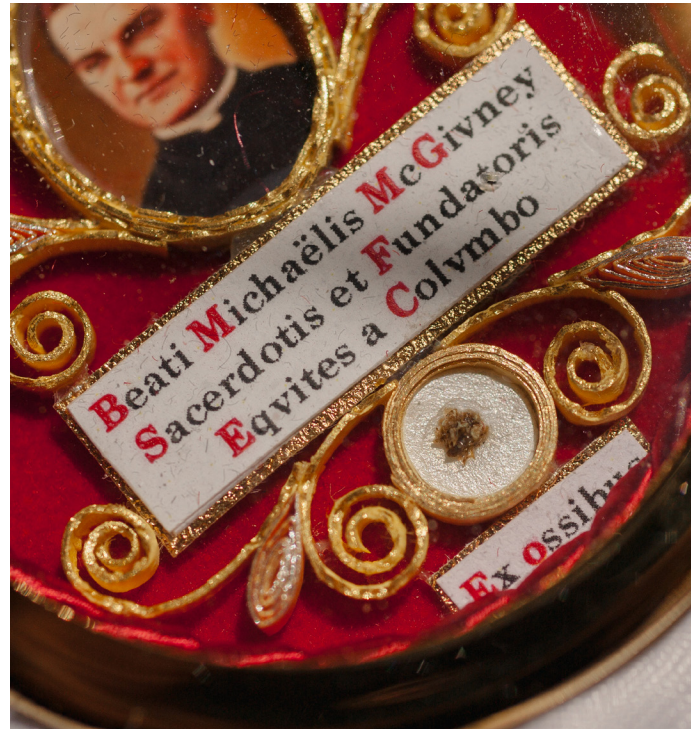

ST. PATRICK

St. Patrick preached the Gospel throughout Ireland. Thanks to the many Irish immigrants who strengthened the faith here in New York, he was chosen as the patron of our Archdiocese and our Cathedral. He was a gifted preacher, and his priestly ministry led so many to believe in Christ. It seems to me that his patronage is significant in our Parish. Parishioners have increasingly been inviting friends, coworkers, family members, and others to come to our churches. St. Patrick's intercession can be such a powerful aid to their growth in the Christian life.

This first-class relic will be in the Great Reliquary at the base of the St. Vincent Ferrer finger relic. St. Dominic will be the other relic by his side. Thus, the patron of the Archdiocese and the patron of the Dominican Order will take central place in the reliquary, along with the patrons of our two churches.

BL. MICHAEL MCGIVNEY

We were also given a first-class relic of Bl. Michael McGivney by Patrick Kelly, the Supreme Knight of the Knights of Columbus. A native of Connecticut, Bl. Michael founded the Knights of Columbus who have spent many decades cultivating a virtuous sense of masculinity and caring for widows, the unborn, families, and those who are disabled. In many ways, this patronage is needed in our country and our city. God has blessed us as a Parish with increasing support for marriage preparation and family life, and there is so much work to be done in the city with regard to establishing a culture of life and supporting those who are disabled. Bl. Michael's intercession is a great heavenly support for all of this.

His relic is in the Great Reliquary in the baptistry at St. Vincent's on the right side and just to the left of the silver reliquary holding the relic of the true Cross.

BL. KARL OF AUSTRIA

Bl. Karl of Austria was the last emperor of the Habsburgs, and he lived with great holiness. This has trickled down to his children and grandchildren, and one of his granddaughters arranged for us to have this first-class relic. But, why here? Bl. Karl is a powerful intercessor for peace because of the role he played in working with the Vatican during World War I. He was also a proponent of supporting the family, the unborn, and the virtuous use of wealth. With all that's going on in the world and our city, his intercession for peace and true prosperity, the kind that always looks toward heaven, can be so powerful.

His relic is in the new shrine near the Rosary Altar entrance at St. Vincent's.

Through the intercession of these great saints, may we all live in holiness and become saints too!

In the Son of God, the Divine Architect,

MUSIC NOTES

Robert Lucas Pearsall was born at Clifton in Bristol into a wealthy Quaker family. In 1817, Pearsall married Harriet Eliza Hobday, the daughter of portrait painter William Armfield Hobday, and for several years thereafter, Robert practiced as a barrister in Bristol. In 1825, he took his family to live abroad: first to Mainz, then to Karlsruhe, and later near Rorschach in Switzerland. Pearsall was educated privately, although it is likely that he received some lessons after moving abroad. Periodically returning to Bristol, Pearsall's last visit in 1836 coincided with the foundation of the Bristol Madrigal Society, for which many of his choral works were composed.

Upcoming Events

MEET OUR SUMMER INTERN CHAPLAIN Br. Jeremiah Tobin, O.P.

I'm from a little town in Connecticut north of Bridgeport. I graduated from Providence College in Rhode Island in 2020 with a degree in classics and history. It was at PC that I first met the Dominican friars, who were my professors and chaplains (including Fr. Peter Martyr!), and, eventually, my mentors and friends. I was inspired by their deep engagement with the intellectual life, their zeal for the Gospel, and their evident happiness in living a life of community. After graduating, I entered the Order in 2020, grateful to God for the friar preachers I have known in my own life and spurred on by St. Paul's pressing question, 'And how can they hear without someone to preach?'

Br. Jeremiah Tobin, O.P., is a summer intern chaplain with the Dominican Healthcare Ministry. You can find him preaching on Thursdays during Holy Hour at St. Catherine's.

SUNDAY, JULY 13

Second Collection

Beginning this weekend and through the month of July, the wooden collection boxes at the entrances of the churches will be designated to receive envelopes and loose cash to support the Black and Indian Missions. These boxes will be used instead of taking up an Archdiocesan second collection during the Offertory at Mass. If you have an envelope labeled for this collection, you are also welcome to put it in the first collection's basket, from which it will be sorted. Thank you for your generosity.

TUESDAY, JULY 15, 6:45 PM

Parish Lecture Series

Our Catholic Tradition lists the Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit as wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of God.

Join us in July as Br. Pius Henry, O.P., leads us in our summer Parish Lecture Series in the Lower Church about the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 16, 6:30 PM

Holy Hour Preaching

Throughout Ordinary Time, we will reflect on the Book of Psalms.

This Week's Psalm: Psalm 19

Listen to our Introduction to the Psalms and previous teachings online at svsc.info/PsalmsHolyHour

TUESDAY, JULY 22, 7 PM

Feast of St. Mary Magdalene

For the Feast of St. Mary Magdalene we will have a Solemn Dominican Rite Mass at 7 PM at St. Vincent Ferrer. St. Mary Magdalene is referred to as the "Apostle of the Apostles" (Apostola Apostolorum) because she carried the news of the Resurrection to the apostles. With St. Catherine of Alexandria, she is a Patroness of the Order of Preachers.

This Mass will be sung by the Schola Cantorum of the London Oratory School, under the direction of Charles Cole. One of the most prominent Catholic musical ensembles in the world, the Schola is comprised of boys who study at London's Oratory School and sings every weekend in term at the famous Brompton Oratory. The choir can be heard on the Lord of the Rings and Harry Potter soundtracks and has an exceptional discography of their own on the Hyperion and Sony Classical labels.

The London Schola also sang at St. Vincent Ferrer in 2017 on their last tour of the East Coast.

SUMMER PARISH OFFICE HOURS

Throughout the Summer (between Memorial Day and Labor Day Weekends) the Parish Office will be open:

Monday–Thursday:
9 AM–1 PM, 2 PM–4 PM

Friday:
9 AM–1 PM

THURSDAY, JULY 24, 7 PM*Aquinas Book Club*

Our Aquinas Book Club meeting is scheduled for Thursday, July 10, at 7 PM. We will be discussing Chapters 5, 6, and 7 from Compendium of morality: St. Thomas Aquinas made simple for everyone by Fr. Vincenzo Ottorino Benetollo, O.P. (Pages 109–180).

Aquinas Book Club meets every two weeks on Thursdays in the Parish Parlors at St. Vincent Ferrer.
