BAPTISMAL GRACES

These past couple of months, we have been blessed with a number of baptisms. Infants pretty much every weekend, high schoolers and adults at the Easter Vigil, and another adult at the Pentecost Vigil all have come to the font of life and received the Lord's blessing in abundance. Original sin was forgiven, virtues were infused, the gifts of the Holy Spirit were poured out, and the character of Christ was sealed on the soul. In all of this, those who are baptized live a remarkably different life. Now, their souls are configured to God so they can receive His gifts and graces.

Take one of our newly baptized adults. She had been married validly in the Church earlier in the year. Since she wasn't yet a Christian, though, her marriage was only valid but not sacramental. When she was baptized and her soul was configured to Christ, everything changed. For in the moment of the baptism, when she began to receive God's sacramental graces, she and her husband also received the grace of the sacrament of marriage. The look on her face was priceless, and afterward, the bishop gave her and her husband a special blessing for their marriage, which now had been sacramentalized.

SACRAMENTAL GRACES

What is going on in all this, though? It's amazing to have these graces of baptism and the other sacraments. Yet, why does the Lord do this? What is the ultimate point of all of this?

Here, I think we find an answer on the bottom of the lid of the baptismal font at St. Vincent Ferrer. There, we see an image of the Trinity. In the midst of the triangle, which is often a sign of the Trinity, we have images of the three Divine Persons. The hand represents the Father, the Paschal Lamb represents the Son, and the dove represents the Holy Spirit. Around them is a ring, as if it's on fire. In this simple image, we see something profound. For at the heart of the life of those who are baptized is the Trinity. The divine life is a communal and eternal one; it's a divine communion of persons. It's a life of flaming love. Yet, it's not a destructive fire but rather a life-giving one that kindles and strengthens those who encounter it (just think of the burning bush in Exodus 3).

It's into this life that God invites us through baptism and the other sacraments. God doesn't just want to forgive us our sins. Nor does He just want to fill us with faith, hope, and charity. Even more so, He desires to draw us into His inner life. God wants us to share in the Trinitarian life of the Father,

Baptismal Font, St. Vincent Ferrer Church, New York

Son, and Holy Spirit. He desires that we can enter into the reality of love that exists among the Divine Persons.

Baptism is just the beginning. It's the portal to enter into a sacramental life where the Eucharist nourishes us, confirmation enflames us, marriage and Holy Orders build up the Church in their particular ways, confession heals us, and anointing of the sick strengthens us. The sacraments, each in their own way, draw us into the inner life of the Trinity. They all are means for us to encounter God in a life-giving way. In each of them, He pours His graces into our lives so that we can be sanctified as we are drawn deeper into union and communion with Him.

It's with this background in mind that baptism is one of the greatest gifts we can receive in this life. Hence, Pope Francis frequently spoke of remembering our baptismal anniversaries. If you don't know your baptismal anniversary, these weeks surrounding Pentecost and Trinity Sunday are a great time to learn it. That way, when your anniversary comes up, you can thank God for drawing you into His inner life.

In the Son of God, the Divine Architect,

MUSIC NOTES

Carlos Patiño sang as a choirboy at the Cathedral of Seville where he studied with Alonso Lobo, who himself grew up as a chorister under Francisco Guerrero. Widowed in 1625 after a brief marriage, he was ordained to the priesthood. Three years later he was named maestro de capilla of the Real Monasterio de la Encarnación, Madrid, where he followed Gabriel Díaz Bessón. Patiño succeeded Mateo Romero as the first Spanish-born maestro of the Royal Chapel of King Philip IV in 1634.

Upcoming Events

SUNDAY, JUNE 15

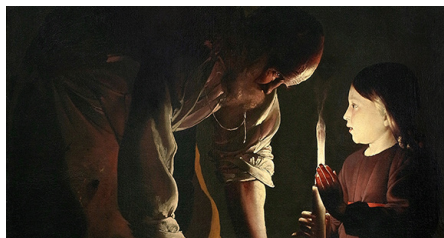

Trinity Sunday

The first Sunday after Pentecost is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. St. Rupert commented, "The time is well chosen, for, immediately after the descent of the Divine Spirit, began the preaching and belief and Baptism and confession in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit." At the conclusion of the 12 NOON Solemn Mass on Trinity Sunday, a Solemn Te Deum, in the form of the hymn Holy God, We Praise Thy Name, will be sung. This is the great hymn of thanksgiving to the Holy Trinity.

Summer Ordinary Time begins after Pentecost and lasts until the beginning of Advent (November 30, 2025). The lectionary in this segment of the liturgical year focuses on the spreading of the Gospel by the Spirit-filled acts of the Apostles. In the preconiliar calendar, the equivalent "Time after Pentecost" began on the Monday after Trinity Sunday because Pentecost had an Octave.

NEW MUSIC LIST FOR SUMMER

The Parish's music brochure, Music as Holy Preaching, is now available in the narthex and online. This booklet contains a list of the choral repertoire for all Solemn Masses this summer as well as information about the St. Cecilia Guild, our Friends of Music program that financially supports music in the Parish.

SUNDAY, JUNE 8 - MONDAY, JUNE 16

Father's Day Novena

Father's Day Novena Mass Cards are now available at St. Vincent Ferrer Church and the Office. This special Mass card enables one to remember fathers, living or deceased, in the Novena of Masses offered at St. Vincent's from June 8-16. To enroll a loved one, simply fill out as many remittance envelopes as you would like next to the Father's Day cards, then put your free will donation in the envelope and deposit it in the collection basket at Mass or any of the candle money depositories in the church. Finally, help yourself to the Father's Day cards. Your donations will help support the friars at St. Vincent Ferrer Priory. Thank you for your generosity.

At St. Catherine of Siena Church, you may enroll living or deceased fathers by completing a Father's Day envelope found in the church to enroll your loved ones. The 10 AM Mass on Father's Day, June 15, at St. Catherine's will be offered for all fathers enrolled in the Mass intention. There are no Mass cards available at St. Catherine's. Any free will donations submitted with your envelope will support the friars at the St. Catherine of Siena Priory.

SUNDAY, JUNE 15

Father's Day

The third Sunday of June is Father's Day. There will be a Remembrance Book for all deceased fathers at the St. Joseph Altar at both Churches.

SUNDAY, JUNE 15

Second Collection

This weekend, a second collection will be taken-up to support the Church in Latin America and Home Missions. Thank you for your generosity.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 18, 5:15 PM

Our Lady of Perpetual Help Prayer Group Mass

On the third Wednesday of June, there will be a Solemn Mass at 5:15 PM at St. Catherine of Siena followed by a devotional Procession. This is the annual Mass offered in honor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, sponsored by the prayer group under her patronage at St. Catherine of Siena.

4:45 PM Holy Rosary

5:15 PM Solemn Mass with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Novena, Candlelight Procession, and Benediction

All are invited to a light reception following Mass in St. Joseph Hall.

SUMMER PARISH OFFICE HOURS

Throughout the Summer (between Memorial Day and Labor Day Weekends) the Parish Office will be open:

Monday–Thursday:
9 AM–1 PM, 2 PM–4 PM

Friday:
9 AM–1 PM

MONDAY, JUNE 16

New York Purgatorial Society Mass

A sung Requiem Mass in the Dominican Rite sponsored by the New York Purgatorial Society will be offered at St. Vincent Ferrer. All are welcome.

SUNDAY, JUNE 22

Corpus Christi

The second Sunday after Pentecost is the Solemnity of Corpus Christi – the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. Following the 12 NOON Solemn Mass, there will be a Eucharistic Procession with brass quartet through the streets, with a stational altar at St. John Nepomucene, and ending at St. Catherine of Siena with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Eucharistic Adoration will then continue at St. Catherine of Siena until Benediction at 4:45 PM. The Chaplet of Divine Mercy will be prayed at 3 PM and the Rosary recited at 4 PM.

TUESDAY, JUNE 24, 7 PM

Mystagogy

Mystagogy returns for a bonus talk with author, Stephen F. Auth, to talk about his latest book.

In Visions of the Divine, Catholic evangelist, author, and businessman Steve Auth reunites the art of the Eucharist with the Eucharistic liturgy itself. Much of this art was separated from the context of the Mass for which it was created many centuries ago and is relegated now to museums sprinkled around the world. Along with his co-authors Evelyn Auth and Msgr. Roger Landry, Steve leads the reader on a worldwide pilgrimage to some of the most spectacular and moving artistic masterpieces created over the millennia to help clergy and laity alike penetrate more deeply into the Eucharistic mystery. Journeying to museums and churches in nearly twenty cities across the United States and Europe, the authors will guide you through the liturgy of the Mass in ways you may never have experienced.
