JOIN OUR PARISH

We welcome all new parishioners who would like to join our community. If you have made the Parish your spiritual home but have not yet registered, please do. This will help us to help you in case you're asked to be a godparent, or in case you would like to get married here. It will also help the Dominicans more intentionally to keep you in their prayers. Moreover, it will be a great means to help you get rooted in and connected to a community. Please visit our website, svsc.info/join-our-parish to register as a parishioner. You can also stop by the Parish office to complete a registration form.

PARISH EMAIL

To receive up to date information regarding the Parish schedule and important announcements, please sign-up for Parish emails via our website, svsc.info or email the Parish office, parish@svsc.info.

FEAST OF ST. ALBERT THE GREAT, O.P.

Monday, November 15 is the Feast of St. Albert the Great, O.P., patron saint of scientists who advocated the synthesis of faith and reason. There will be a "Gold Mass" in the Dominican Rite at 7 PM at St. Vincent Ferrer for which the Schola Cantorum will sing Maurice Duruflé's Messe cum júbilo, Op. 11. This setting of the Mass is the musical twin to Duruflé's Requiem sung on November 8. Like the other Masses for members of particular professions, the Gold Mass is offered for scientists.

THANKSGIVING NOVENA

From Wednesday, November 17 through Thanksgiving Day on Thursday, November 25, the Parish will offer a Thanksgiving Novena of Prayer. Holy cards and petition slips will be available at both Churches.

CHRIST THE KING

Sunday, November 21 is the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, the final Sunday of the liturgical year. This feast, instituted by Pope Pius XI in 1925, is the culmination of the time after Pentecost during which the Church lectionary has been describing the workings of the Holy Spirit in the world, urging the faithful to prepare for the coming (the Advent) of the Lord, both in his lowly birth at Bethlehem and in his kingly glory at the end of the age.

ADORATION AND CONSECRATION TO THE SACRED HEART NEXT SUNDAY

In celebration of the Solemnity of Christ the King, Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament will be offered on Sunday, November 21 at St. Vincent Ferrer following the 12 NOON Solemn Mass with the Chaplet of Divine Mercy and Preaching at 3 PM and Benediction at 5 PM. Also as part of next Sunday afternoon's Exposition, the Parish will also be consecrated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Confessions will be heard from 2–3 PM.

There will also be Adoration from 3–5 PM at St. Catherine of Siena as usual.

FEAST OF ST. CECILIA

Monday, November 22 is the Memorial of St. Cecilia, Virgin Martyr. Because she is the patron saint of musicians, there will be a Solemn Mass at 6 PM at St. Vincent Ferrer for which the Schola Cantorum will sing Pierre Clereau's Missa Cecilia Virgo and Jean de Castro's Cantantibus Organis – Biduanis.

SECOND COLLECTION – NEXT WEEKEND

Next week, our second collection will be for the Catholic Charities Campaign for Charity and Justice. Countless families in the Archdiocese live in poverty. Thanks to your generosity, last year this collection helped parish/community-based efforts to help the poor all across the Archdiocese. By supporting this collection you give people a helping hand. Learn more about the collection at catholiccharitiesny.org/ccj/

THANKSGIVING DAY

On Thursday, November 25, Thanksgiving Day, there will only be two Masses offered in the Parish: a Low Mass at 9 AM at St. Catherine of Siena and a Sung Mass at 10 AM at St. Vincent Ferrer. Both churches will close following the Masses.

The Parish Offices will be closed on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, November 24–26, but Masses and Confessions will be offered as usual on Wednesday and Friday.

MUSIC NOTES

Next weekend, for the Solemnity of Christ the King, the final Sunday before Advent, the Schola will sing Mozart's grand Coronation Mass and an early German Baroque setting of "God so loved the world." (John 3:16)

Missa in C Major, K. 317, 'Krönungsmesse'

– Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart (1756-1791)

Sic Deus dilexit mundum – Johann Hermann Schein (1586-1630)

Our Parish Novena of Prayer in Thanksgiving for Blessings Received

As I sit reflecting upon all that has transpired during this past year in my personal life, and begin putting these changes into perspective, I have asked myself where has this year has gone. Here we are already beginning to think about the holiday season just ahead of us, and so much for which we need to be grateful.

Here at the Shrine of St. Jude, we have recently concluded our Octave of Prayer in honor of The Exultation of the Holy Cross and Our Lady of Sorrows. This period of prayer honoring Christ and His Mother brought many people together to our church and shrine during these days of our Eucharistic Adoration. The gift of the Eucharist, the very presence of Jesus Christ on our altars, reminds us that we must be grateful for this wonderful, magnificent miracle of the Body and Blood of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

During October we celebrated the eleven days of prayer, from the Feast of St. Luke (October 18) through the Feast of St. Jude (October 28). These days of prayer offered us that opportunity to reflect on the medical issues of so many visitors to our church and shrine – people seeking in prayer and trying to understand the question WHY? There is no simple answer to this question of sickness and suffering; it must be discovered for each one of us in the Cross and Resurrection of Jesus Christ.

On September 19 the Dominican Order rejoiced in the celebration of the Canonization of one of our Lay Dominicans, St. Margaret of Castello. She was fondly known as ‘Little Margaret’. Born in Matola, Northern Italy in 1287, with multiple birth defects, she was cast away by her parents. Margaret was a dwarf at four feet, her head large and her right leg shorter than her left, which caused her to walk with a limp. She was deformed, totally blind, hunchbacked and lame. The birth of a deformed child is a traumatic experience for most parents and Margaret was no exception. When she was about eighteen, her parents took her to Citta-di-Castello to the tomb of a saintly Franciscan who, they hoped, would cure her. She was abandoned at the church and became a beggar on the streets of Castello. Margaret, in spite of being ‘physically challenged’, was gifted mentally and spiritually. She accepted her cross because she had deep faith. She did not know why God permitted these afflictions, but her faith walked her through life always compassionate and sensitive towards others, cheerful, smiling, courageous; never bitter or reproachful. She was sustained through her life of prayer and the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, which gave her the strength to carry on.

As an unwanted and deformed child, Margaret of Castello became a ‘saint for our time’. In celebrating her canonization Margaret speaks for herself through her afflictions. She shared her gift of life with many of the sick poor and the incarcerated prisoners of Citta-di-Castello during her years as a ‘Mantellata’ in the Dominican Order. Margaret entered her new home in heaven in 1320. We celebrated her canonization with many visitors and friends of our new saint present for the Mass.

With the aforesaid celebrations, and for so many other reasons which are much too long to go into, we here in the Parish and at the Shrine of St. Jude have many reasons for which to be thankful as we approach the end of 2021. Each of you, I am sure, have your own reasons for which to be thankful as well. Our Thanksgiving Novena will begin on Wednesday, November 17 and conclude on Thanksgiving Day, November 25. The Novena Prayer will be recited at all our parish Masses in both churches during these nine days. The evening Masses at St. Catherine of Siena will be offered for the intentions of all those participating in these days of thanksgiving for blessings received during the past year. Our intention Book of Remembrance is located on the Altar of the Sacred Heart in St. Catherine of Siena Church and on the Rosary Altar in St. Vincent Ferrer Church. You are invited to add your intentions so that we might join all of our prayers together.

May I take this opportunity to extend to you and your loved ones my special Thanksgiving best wishes and promise of my remembrance in daily Masses throughout the year.

Sincerely yours in St. Jude,
Father Joseph P. Allen, O.P.

THANKSGIVING NOVENA

From Wednesday, November 17 through Thanksgiving Day on Thursday, November 25, the Parish will offer a Thanksgiving Novena of Prayer. Holy cards and petition slips will be available at both Churches.

THANKSGIVING NOVENA PRAYER

*Father all powerful
Your gifts of love are countless,
and Your goodness infinite;
as we come before You with gratitude
for Your kindness,
open our hearts to have concern
for all peoples everywhere, so that we may share
Your gifts in loving concern.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God forever and ever.
Amen.*

A Request from the Social Concerns Committee

Thank you for the holiday toys you have been donating for the NYC Common Pantry AND, moving along with our “asks”, we will need Christmas presents for the residents at the Park Avenue Women’s Shelter. Even though we are not having the annual Christmas Party at St. Vincent’s this year, we will provide a wrapped gift (with at least 4 items) for each woman and deliver it to the Shelter. We will also provide the money, donated by you, for the Shelter to cater a special holiday meal for the women as we would have had at our party. Hopefully, next year we will celebrate with a festive party at St. Vincent’s.

This year we need cologne, sweaters, tops, pajamas, scarves, hats, gloves and new or lightly used jewelry. The sizes needed are large through 2X. Our collection runs from November 7 through November 28.

We thank you for bringing comfort and joy to our neighbors.
