A Kingly Thanksgiving

PROCESSIONS ON THE STREETS

Each year, the Solemnity of Christ the King falls on the weekend before Thanksgiving or during Thanksgiving weekend itself. Last year, when it was on Thanksgiving weekend, our Eucharistic Procession to St. Patrick's Cathedral was beautiful. There were throngs of people shopping on 5th Avenue, and the number of tourists was remarkable. From New Yorkers in a rush to taxi drivers to the homeless to tourists, scores of people encountered Christ the King as He came to meet them on the streets of our city. I can distinctly remember one of the Sisters of Life who told someone that Jesus was coming. He looked surprised but desirous to see the Lord and said, "Where is He?" She pointed to the monstrance, and he had a look on his face, which led me to think that he wanted to believe. Hopefully, God's graces took root in all of their lives, and this is something on which they can look back with gratitude.

PROCESSIONS IN OUR HEARTS

In this, though, we are posed a question. Have we let Christ stroll into our hearts? There are so many ways that He desires to come to us. He wants to walk into our lives, and we should always be ready for His grace to transform our minds and hearts. He wants to come to us, and He does this in a whole host of ways. For each of these, we should be grateful.

Yet, what are those ways? Who are those people who help Him bring that about in our lives? In my own life, I can think of the example of my parents, the priestly holiness of my college chaplain, the support and encouragement of my college friends, the zeal of my fellow missionaries before I joined the Dominicans, and the wisdom and guidance of so many Dominicans since I entered the Order. Each of those people played a particular role in helping me come to a deeper understanding of Christ's love and truth. Each of them helped me to choose Christ more completely as my King. While I still have room to grow, I am thankful for all of them and the roles they played in aiding God's providential plan in my life.

Even amid a variety of struggles in our lives, there is still so much for which we can be thankful. This week is an opportunity to thank all those who have helped us grow in our faith. It's a wonderful chance to express our gratitude to them for helping us choose Christ as our King. Even if it's been a long time since you've last spoken with them, or even if you've never shared something like this with them, there's good reason to express your thanks. Yet, what can that look like? What will you do to express that gratitude? Is it a handwritten letter? Is it extra time in prayer in front of the Blessed Sacrament? Is it a phone call? Is it dropping off their favorite baked good? There are so many ways to express our gratitude!

Similarly, how have we expressed our gratitude to God? More than anyone else, God has given us the greatest gifts. How recently have we entered into a time when we can express our thanks to Him for our creation, our redemption, the sacraments, His various gifts of grace, and the possibility of entering into the kingdom of heaven? Moreover, what can we do to show Him this gratitude? Is it going to Mass on Thanksgiving Day, spending extra time in Eucharistic Adoration this week, serving the poor, or something else? Again, there are so many ways to express our gratitude.

GRATEFUL FOR YOU

I will also take that opportunity right now. I am grateful to all of you. This assignment has been filled with many graces for me, and I'm grateful for the part that you all have played in this. I'm grateful that you desire to come close to the Lord, and that you want to serve Him. I'm grateful for your spiritual and financial support for our Parish and all the many ways that you have been co-workers with God (cf. 1 Corinthians 3:9) as He has built up our Parish. May He truly be the King of your hearts and bless you abundantly.

Through Jesus Christ the King,
Fr. Peter Martyr Yungwirth, O.P.

This fall's Mystagogy series will consider some of the numerous dialogues God had with His people in the Scriptures. From Adam and Eve to Moses and the Prophets, to the Gospels, where practically every interaction is a conversation with God, the Word made flesh. Guided by Fr. ADVENT*Beginning Sunday, December 1

Sunday, December 1, is the First Sunday of Advent, which marks the beginning of the new liturgical year, Year C, in which we will hear from the Gospel of St. Luke. The season of Advent (from the Latin adventus meaning “coming”) looks forward to the birth of Christ, calling the faithful to prepare for his arrival: first in meekness and mercy and ultimately in judgment and glory.

Liturgies during this “privileged” season of Advent strike a note of anticipation and repentance that is mingled with joy and hope; hence, although penitential violet is the season’s liturgical color, the Gloria is omitted, and the use of the organ is moderated, the Alleluia is retained. The congregational Ordinary (Kyrie, Sanctus, and Agnus Dei) at Sung Masses changes to the Latin-version of Missa XVIII. The Marian Antiphon at the conclusion of Mass changes from Salve Regina (sung from Trinity Sunday until Advent) to Alma Redemptoris Mater (from Advent until Candlemas).

The Advent Wreath for each of our churches will be blessed on the Vigil Masses on November 30.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 9*Immaculate Conception

The Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary is a Holy Day of Obligation (even when transferred as it is this year) and the Patronal Feast of the United States. There will be a Solemn Mass at 6 PM at St. Vincent’s for which the Schola Cantorum will sing Missa Cantate Domino by Duarte Lôbo; Ego flos campi by Francisco Guerrero; and Alma Redemptoris Mater á 8 by Tomás Luis de Victoria.

In addition to the regular weekday Mass and Confession schedule, there will be a 10 AM School Mass at St. Vincent’s and a 1 PM Low Mass at St. Catherine’s. The newly instituted 11:45 AM Dominican Healthcare Mass at St. Catherine’s will also be offered as usual.

The evening Masses on Sunday, December 8, will be for the Second Sunday of Advent and will not satisfy the obligation.

The Act of Total Consecration to Jesus Christ through Mary will be made after Monday’s 5:15 PM Mass at St. Catherine’s.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 12, 7 PM*Marian Lessons and Carols

Our annual Service of Lessons and Carols in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary will be held on the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, at 7 PM at St. Vincent’s. This hour-long celebration of the life of Mary will consist of a sequence of scripture readings, motets sung by the Schola Cantorum, and congregational hymns. A reception will follow.

MUSIC NOTES

The Solemnity of Christ the King, instituted by Pope Pius XI in 1925, is the culmination of the time after Pentecost, during which the Church lectionary has been describing the workings of the Holy Spirit in the world, urging the faithful to prepare for the coming (the Advent) of the Lord, both in his lowly birth at Bethlehem and in his kingly glory at the end of the age. Psalm 46 (47) (Omnes gentes) is a psalm of triumph and kingship closely associated with the Ascension. It includes the verses “For God is the King of all the earth; sing wisely. God shall reign over the nations; God sits upon his holy throne.”
