JOIN OUR PARISH

We welcome all new parishioners who would like to join our community. If you have made the Parish your spiritual home but have not yet registered, please do. This will help us to help you in case you are asked to be a godparent, or in case you would like to get married here. It will also help the Dominicans more intentionally to keep you in their prayers. Moreover, it will be a great means to help you get rooted in and connected to a community. Please visit our website, svsc.info/join-our-parish to register as a parishioner. You can also stop by the Parish office to complete a registration form.

PARISH EMAIL

To receive up to date information regarding the Parish schedule and important announcements, please sign-up for Parish emails via our website, svsc.info or email the Parish office, parish@svsc.info.

RECONCILIATION MONDAY

Monday of Holy Week, April 11, is Reconciliation Monday throughout the Archdiocese, an opportunity for all to make their confession before Easter. Confessions will be heard in both churches from 2–4 PM and 6–9 PM.

PARISH OFFICES CLOSED

The Parish offices will be closed Friday, April 15 and Monday, April 18. The offices will re-open on Tuesday, April 19.

COLLECTION FOR THE HOLY LAND

Each year, the Holy Father asks each Catholic parish around the world to collect a Good Friday offering to assist Christians in the Holy Land. The collection supports the work of the Franciscans in the sacred shrines and parishes, provide formation and education in the communities and schools, and care for the basic needs of the people there. A donation to the Holy Land's annual appeal is a direct way to make a difference in the lives of those caught up in war, violence and instability in this region. Please be generous. For more information, visit www.myfranciscan.org/good-friday.

HOLY WEEK MUSIC

The story of the Passion and Resurrection of Christ is told through musical masterpieces from every generation. Foremost in public recognition are the concert-length Passions of J.S. Bach, the settings of the Stabat Mater of Dvořák and Rossini, and The Last Seven Words of Dubois and Haydn. These works appear annually on the schedules of the City's choral societies, just as Handel's Messiah does in December (although Messiah actually focuses more on the events of Holy Week and Easter than of Christmas).

However, it is in the smaller-scaled compositions for Holy Week – those intended to be sung within the context of the liturgy – where the greatest musical riches can be heard. From Palm Sunday through Easter Sunday, the Parish will offer 15 services with music, including 8 with the Schola Cantorum. All told: 17 motets, 4 choral Mass Ordinaries, 2 chanted Passions, 1 Magnificat, and 1 setting of the Lamentations, as well as dozens of chanted antiphons, responses, orations, and hymns. Not a single piece of choral repertoire will be repeated, as is the case for the entire year.

Please consult the Holy Week flyer or the Music List on the tables in the narthex and online for a complete list of repertoire, and consider making an Easter contribution to our St. Cecilia Guild, the group of patrons who financially support the music program.

LITURGIES OF HOLY WEEK

Please refer to the last page of this bulletin for the full Holy Week Schedule. The schedule is also available on the parish website, svsc.info, and a booklet is also available in both churches.

Holy Week begins with Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord. On this day the Church recalls the entrance of Christ the Lord into Jerusalem to accomplish his Paschal Mystery. This is liturgically observed with a procession, blessing of palms, and proclamation of the Gospel passage recounting Christ's entrance. The Gospel of the Mass itself is the Passion according to Luke. The liturgical color is now red throughout.

In our parish, Blessing of Palms will take place at 11:15 AM at St. Catherine of Siena followed by a procession through the streets, accompanied by a brass quartet, to St. Vincent Ferrer for the 12 NOON Solemn Mass.

On Holy Thursday, the Evening Mass commemorates the Institution of the Holy Eucharist at that Last Supper and the ordination of the Apostles. (No other Mass is celebrated on this day.) The Mass of the Lord's Supper is therefore a Mass of joy and thanksgiving. Hence the Church replaces her penitential violet with white; the altar is decorated; and the Gloria in excelsis is sung during which bells are rung for the last time until the Easter Vigil. Also at this Mass, an extra ciborium of hosts, consecrated for Good Friday's Mass of the Presanctified, is borne in procession to an Altar of Repose. The other altars are stripped, signifying that the holy Sacrifice will not be offered again until the Vigil.

The title "Maundy" Thursday is derived from the ceremony of the washing of feet, the Mandatum, so called because of the incipit of an Antiphon sung during that ceremony: Mandatum novum do vobis (I give you a new commandment.) (John 13:34). The Mandatum takes place on this day because the Lord washed the feet of his Apostles before the Last Supper.

Good Friday is the anniversary of the death and burial of our Lord who, being both High Priest and Victim, offered himself on the cross for the salvation of the world. This day is called "Good" because on it the condescension and goodness of God were exceedingly manifested toward mankind in Christ's self-sacrifice. Its Solemn Liturgy, customarily celebrated at 3 PM, the hour of the Crucifixion, consists of three parts:

- 1a. The Liturgy of the Word, including the chanting of the Johannine Passion.
- 1b. The Solemn Intercessions, with supplications made for the Church and the whole human race.
2. The Adoration of the Holy Cross.
3. The Holy Communion (or Mass of the Presanctified), with the sacred Host which was consecrated on Holy Thursday. The liturgical color is red and was traditionally black. On this and the following day, by a most ancient tradition, the Church does not celebrate the Sacraments at all, except for Penance and the Anointing of the Sick.

At 12 NOON at St. Vincent Ferrer, the Parish will also offer a Service of Seven Last Words. This hour-long meditation on the last utterances of Christ from the Cross will consist of a sequence of reflections offered by members of the Frassati Fellowship of NYC, motets sung by the Schola Cantorum, and congregational hymns.

Through Holy Saturday the Church waits at the Lord's tomb in prayer and fasting; meditating on his Passion, Death, and descent into Hell; and awaiting his Resurrection. Of this night's Great Vigil, which is the pinnacle of the liturgical year, there is only ever one celebration in each parish. It consists of four parts:

1. The Solemn Entrance (Lucernarium), in which the new fire is kindled, the paschal candle is inscribed, the candles of the faithful are lit (Lumen Christi), and the Easter Proclamation (Exsultet) is sung.
2. The Liturgy of the Word, in which up to nine readings (seven from the Old Testament and two from the New) and a Gospel tell of the relationship between God and his people from the beginning of creation through the Resurrection.
3. The Baptismal Liturgy, in which the Litany of the Saints is sung, the baptismal water is blessed, the Baptismal Promises are renewed, and the Elect are baptized and confirmed.
4. The Liturgy of the Eucharist, as the first paschal Mass of Easter Sunday. The church's best white or gold vestments are worn.

What are your Holy Week traditions?

“Can I get the Chocolate Devotion but with strawberry syrup instead of chocolate syrup and also with some strawberries?” Such was a common request for my friends on Holy Thursday night. During my time at the University of Maryland, a Cold Stone Creamery opened up right off campus. So after the Mass of the Lord’s Supper on Holy Thursday evening, we would run over to Cold Stone and get some ice cream—usually a mix of chocolate in anticipation of Christ’s suffering and something red to honor His Most Precious Blood shed for our salvation—before heading back to the Catholic Student Center to keep watch with the Lord resting on the Altar of Repose.

As we enter into Holy Week, how will Christ’s path to redemption shape our lives? The liturgical life of the Church can bear great fruit if it impacts not just the texts at Mass and the color of the priests’ and deacons’ vestments but also if it guides our daily life, especially within the home. Thus, it’s important to reflect on how the liturgical cycle of Christ’s mysteries can impact the whole of our lives.

While not everyone will make a trip to Cold Stone Creamery, there are so many ways to let the liturgy guide our culinary designs in this holiest of weeks. From eating lamb on Holy Thursday, to the Holy Saturday blessing of Easter Baskets, to the Lamb Cake of Easter Sunday, to the traditional Easter Ham (which is connected to the allowance to eat pork in the New Covenant, cf. Acts 10:9-33), to so many other cultural traditions from around the world, there are plenty of ways to let Holy Week set our dinner tables.

On top of that, there are numerous ways for the liturgical cycle to guide our wardrobe. From matching the color of a tie or a dress to the liturgical color for the day (white for Holy Thursday; red for Good Friday; black could be used for Holy Saturday since there’s no official color, and this seems appropriate; gold beginning with the Easter Vigil), to finding an appropriate way to imitate the Dominican custom of wearing our black cappa from after the Mass of the Lord’s Supper until the Gloria during the Easter Vigil, to wearing the best hat or most dapper suit for Easter, what we wear can be a beautiful reminder of why we’re wearing it—namely, that the Lord is working out our redemption.

Beyond the table and the closet, there are other ways to let Holy Week impact our hearts. Will we veil the images and statues in our homes from Palm Sunday until after the Easter Vigil? On Holy Thursday, will we visit seven churches or maybe keep watch with Christ for one hour (cf. Mt. 26:40)? Will we get to confession on Good Friday or Holy Saturday so that we can receive the Blessed Sacrament with a blessed soul on Easter? Will we use Holy Saturday as a time to clean our homes in preparation for the return of the King on Easter? Will we observe the Paschal abstinence and fast on Holy Saturday? Will we have a grand celebration (Dominicans call this “gaudeamus”, we rejoice) after the Easter Vigil? Will we prepare flowers to adorn an image of Christ for Easter Sunday?

Whatever our traditions are or whatever we might be looking to incorporate, the Lord desires to guide us to Himself, to purify our hearts, and to flood our hearts with the living waters of His grace. The more that we are disposed to receive His graces, the more that they will take root. May this Holy Week be a very blessed one for you and your loved ones!

In Christ and through Holy Father Dominic,

Jr. Peter Martyr Jungwirth, O.P.

Weekly Envelope Updates

We have made some adjustments to our weekly envelopes. The first major change is the logo. We have updated all of the envelopes to reflect our recently updated Parish logo. The logo has three key symbols that relate to our Parish. The black and white background represents the Dominican Order and the design is a nod to the cappa worn by the Dominican friars. The trumpet is a symbol of St. Vincent and the lily is a symbol of St. Catherine of Siena.

The second change you will see is the orange Deficit Reduction envelope will be replaced by a blue H.E.L.P. envelope, an acronym for Heat, Energy, Lighting, and Property. Our 2021 annual expense to cover our heat, air conditioning, telephones, internet, technology, lighting, and property repairs and maintenance was $331,757.03. Your monthly contribution in support of these basic services will go a long way in paying this large expense. Thank you for your generosity as always.

The updates should be in effect with the next mailing. Any questions, please call the Parish Office.

CONTINUING TO RESURRECT THE LIFE OF THE PARISH

As we enter into this holiest of weeks, we approach the graces of the new life that flow from the Resurrection. In God's goodness, He draws us not only through sin and death but also into a new life where His grace can transform our lives. With the power of His love and life present in our own lives, it becomes more and more possible for Him to transform our Parish community as well.

Likewise, what a blessing it is that we continue to pull through the effects of the pandemic. With the number of COVID cases decreasing in various parts of the world, and especially in our city, we can have hope that we're drawing closer to a period of endemic rather than pandemic status. While there is still reason to be sensitive about and aware of how COVID continues to spread, now we can literally breath a little more freely.

Thus, it seems apropos to continue to resurrect some more of the life of the parish that had been put on hiatus because of the pandemic. This will take creativity and the help of our parishioners. From bringing back hospitality after Mass starting on the Second Sunday of Easter, to restoring a more concerted outreach to our homebound parishioners to bring them the sacraments of Holy Communion and Confession, to bringing back greeters at St. Vincent's (St. Catherine's already has brought them back), there are many ways that the graces of the resurrection and the new life flowing therefrom can take root in the regular life of the Parish. To help with this, we are looking for volunteers who are willing to serve the Parish in any of these ways. Please email Ginny at parish@svsc.info, or stop by the office if you are interested in volunteering in any of these ways.

At the same time, the numbers of congregants and guests at Mass is continuing to rise. There has been a noticeable number of newly registered parishioners since we launched a registration drive in October. Last fall, we began a concerted effort to welcome our newly registered parishioners with a Welcome Packet and an invitation to meet the pastor so that I can share with them different things that might interest them in the life of the Parish. We have also seen an increase in guests visiting the city and our Parish. The increasing number of people coming to worship God with us is a real blessing, and being able to welcome them with open arms should be a task of the whole Parish.

With the fruits also come the practical realities, which are twofold. The first is about continuing to expand our hospitality to new parishioners, guests, and those who maybe only come a few times each year. Sometimes this means that people will sit in your normal seats. If you see a new face or someone whom you haven't seen in a

Celebration of the Canonization of St. Margaret of Castello, O.P. in September

Parish Study with Fr. Albert Paretsky, O.P. in the Fall

while, it can be a wonderful gift to welcome them rather than become frustrated that they're in your beloved pew. God's grace has been working in their lives to draw them here, and what a blessing it is to welcome them not with frustration and a frown but with charity and a smile. This very well could be the case this week when more people will come for the Triduum liturgies. The more welcoming the Parish can be to them, the more likely they will be to come back and continue to worship with us regularly.

The other practical reality is an increase in some of the day-to-day costs for the Parish. Many of these, like the increase in paper costs as well as the increase in the number of programs we will need to accommodate for additional numbers at Mass, the Parish can find ways to offset. Yet, it isn't a good financial model to simply move money from one budget line to another when there are increased costs. It is better to find ways to increase the income, and so your financial support, especially this Easter, could go a long way to support our increased numbers and our increased efforts for hospitality to both visitors and new parishioners.

At the same time, I am hoping that we will be able to undertake some new projects in the coming year that range from $500 to $10,000. We can use financial support for replacing our outdated computers in the Parish office, affording the annual costs for a new electronic file sharing system for the staff, reworking our website domain name since the current one isn't recognized by some vendors, refurbishing the doors of both churches and the floor at St. Vincent's, getting new altar linens for the High Altars, to many other things. If you would like to support the upkeep of the Parish in this way, I would love to meet, talk about your interests, and find ways that we can have good stewardship of your financial support. This could also be a beautiful way to memorialize your loved ones. Feel free to contact me at pastor@svsc.info if you would like to learn more or meet to talk with me about any of these opportunities to support the Parish.

I am so grateful to be with you all at this time as the Parish life continues to come back, more and more, to normal. May the Lord bless you and your loved ones this Holy Week and Easter Season so that the coming graces of the Resurrection may bear abundant fruit. Let us keep one another and our Parish in prayer!

In Christ and through Our Holy Father Dominic,

Jr. Peter Martyr Jungwirth, O.P.
