Shrine of St. Jude - Parish Patronal Novena

Dear parishioners,

The months of April and May invite us to pray and reflect on our two great Dominican patronal saints: Catherine of Siena (1347-1380) and Vincent Ferrer (1350-1419). We will begin our annual novena on Monday, April 29 and conclude on Tuesday, May 7. Among other feasts, the days of our novena will include: Solemnity of St. Catherine of Siena (April 29), Dedication of the Church of St. Catherine of Siena (May 4), Dedication of the Church of St. Vincent Ferrer (May 6 this year), and Solemnity of St. Vincent Ferrer (May 7 this year). I hope this time of prayer might enrich your devotion to our Dominican saints.

St. Catherine, a twin and the youngest of twenty-five children, was born to Giacomo and Lapa Benincasa in their spacious house in Siena. Catherine began having spiritual experiences as early as six years of age and would not be deterred from her desire to belong only to Jesus. At the age of twelve, she declared that she would never marry. Her trials began with her parents harrying and scolding her from morning to night, setting her to carry out menial household work, but she was not be ruffled by it. Long afterward, in her work, The Dialogue, she wrote that God had taught her to build within her soul a quiet refuge for prayer and contemplation. When she was nineteen, while praying in the quiet of her room, Jesus appeared to her along with His Blessed Mother, and taking her hand, placed a ring upon her finger. This spiritual espousal ended her years of solitude and prayer. It brought her out of her cell, as she called it, and her mission of service within the Church began.

St. Vincent Ferrer was born in Valencia, Spain in 1350. Inspired by prophecies of his future greatness, his parents instilled in him an intense devotion to Our Lord and His Blessed Mother. As he came to love the poor, his parents made him the dispenser of their alms. On the intellectual side, he was equally precocious. He entered the Dominican priory of Valencia at the age of 17, and before he was 21, he was appointed reader in philosophy. As a deacon, he was renowned for his preaching, his sermons moving careless Catholics to repentance and converting numerous Jews to the Christian faith. In Barcelona, during an open-air sermon, he predicted the arrival of ships with corn for a famine-stricken city, which proved true, and the people rushed to the priory to acclaim him a prophet. Likewise, his lectures and sermons met with extraordinary success.

St. Catherine of Siena and St. Vincent Ferrer provide us with

"St. Vincent Ferrer and St. Catherine of Siena," Janine Manbiem, n.d., at both St. Vincent Ferrer Church and St. Catherine of Siena Church, New York, NY

shining examples of what it means to be preachers of Jesus Christ. They shared what they had received: Veritas. Both labored to the point of exhaustion, devoting their lives and energies to preaching the healing power of the Good News, and the Risen Lord had energized and sustained them to be true and faithful preachers of the word. They also both lived during the time of the Western Schism (1378-1417), when two, and later three, rival popes were reigning in Rome and Avignon. The two were involved in efforts to restore unity to the Church and bring the validly-elected pope back to Rome. At the end of their lives, they knew they had given their all for the salvation of souls.

During our novena, Mass will be offered each day for your intentions. Our novena prayer will be offered at all five daily Masses and eight weekend Masses in both churches. Also, I invite you to write your intentions in our books at each of the Shrines. At St. Catherine's, the book intention book will be by the icon of our patron saints at the Shrine of St. Dominic. At St. Vincent's, it will be at the Shrine of St. Vincent Ferrer. Prayer cards will be available in both churches as well.

Our general intention will be for the holy preaching, especially that of our Dominican Friars. We will all be united in this prayer, pleading for the spread of the Gospel and the Eucharistic Revival within the Church.

Sincerely yours in St. Jude,
Father Joseph P. Allen, O.P.
Shrine Director
