May 1, 2022 – Third Sunday of Easter

JOIN OUR PARISH

We welcome all new parishioners who would like to join our community. If you have made the Parish your spiritual home but have not yet registered, please do. This will help us to help you in case you are asked to be a godparent, or in case you would like to get married here. It will also help the Dominicans more intentionally to keep you in their prayers. Moreover, it will be a great means to help you get rooted in and connected to a community. Please visit our website, svsc.info/join-our-parish to register as a parishioner. You can also stop by the Parish office to complete a registration form.

PARISH EMAIL

To receive up to date information regarding the Parish schedule and important announcements, please sign-up for Parish emails via our website, svsc.info or email the Parish office, parish@svsc.info.

ALMSGIVING SUNDAY

This week, and going forward, the orange Deficit Reduction envelope is replaced with a blue H.E.L.P. envelope, an acronym for Heat, Energy, Lighting and Property. Your monthly contribution in support of basic services such as heat, air conditioning, telephones, technology, lighting, property repairs and maintenance goes a long way in helping us to pay this very large monthly expense.

Donations will also be taken-up after Mass by members of the Social Concerns Committee to support the work of the New York Common Pantry.

You can also contribute to both collections on line via WeShare. Visit our parish website, svsc.info/ways-to-give, to make your donations. Thank you for your generosity.

SOLEMNITY OF ST. VINCENT FERRER

Thursday, May 5 is the Solemnity of St. Vincent Ferrer and the anniversary of Church's dedication. There will be a Solemn Mass at 6 PM at St. Vincent Ferrer for which the Schola will sing Orlando di Lasso's Missa Bell' Amfitrit' altera; Deus meus in simplicitate cordis mei; and Ecce nunc benedicite Dominum. A solemn Te Deum will be sung at the conclusion of the Mass.

The Church of St. Vincent Ferrer, dedicated on May 5, 1918, was built to the designs of renowned American architect Bertram Grosvenor Goodhue, who considered this his finest building. This National Historic Landmark is widely acclaimed as the foremost American example of French Gothic-style architecture and includes a complete set of Charles Connick stained glass windows, carvings by Lee Lawrie, and two instruments by the Schantz Organ Company.

Born in the province of Valencia, Spain, St. Vincent Ferrer (1350-1419) joined the Order of Preachers in 1367. Traveling widely across Europe, his preaching against the evils of the time encouraged repentance and promoted Church reform. A significant figure in ending the Western schism, he worked tirelessly for peace and unity within the Church. Vincent is often depicted holding a trumpet and the Book of Revelation with a quotation from it, reading: Timete Deum et date illi honorem quia venit hora iudicii ejus (Fear God and give honor to him for the hour of judgment is coming). The flame above his head symbolizes the Holy Spirit's call to preach the Gospel.

St. Vincent Ferrer's feastday according to the liturgical calendar of the Dominican Order is May 5. In the general Roman Calendar, St. Vincent's feastday is April 5, the day on which he died.

The Dominican Charism – Why Preaching?

The light of dawn streamed in through the windows. The light of grace penetrated the heart.

The year was 1203, and St. Dominic was accompanying his bishop from Spain to the Danish Marches to negotiate a marriage between the son of the King of Castile and a Danish noble woman. Their journey led them through Toulouse in southern France, and there the two travelers stopped overnight at an inn. It quickly became obvious that their host had lapsed from the faith and embraced the Albigensian heresy. At once, St. Dominic and the innkeeper intensely began to debate religious truths. This conversation continued through the night with the light of candles enlightening the room and the Light of Truth enlightening the innkeeper's heart. By morning, he had been won back to the true faith. The rays of the sun revealed how the grace of the Son had transformed the man's life. He had traveled through the darkness of error and come back to the light of Christ.

What was it that led St. Dominic to engage in this nighttime disputatio? After he met the innkeeper, St. Dominic soon realized that the innkeeper was a man desirous to follow God but that some things were askew. He understood that God was the Creator but didn't get that He was the Creator of both heaven and earth. He recognized that Jesus was the Savior of the soul but not also of the body. In a sense, the man had the seeds of faith but needed to have the rest of the package filled out. More than anything else in that moment, St. Dominic desired to share what he had found: the whole Lord, the whole Gospel, the whole Truth. Ultimately, it was because St. Dominic so deeply loved the Lord, that he also loved His people. From this love overflowed a desire to share the Truth and the Love that he had come to know. So he stayed up through the night to share that with this man.

This is at the heart of the Dominican charism. The Dominican is called to come to know Christ and then to share Jesus Christ with others through preaching in word and deed. The Fundamental Constitutions of the Order of Preachers states,

“we have as our special function a prophetic task, which is to proclaim everywhere by word and example the Gospel of Jesus Christ, taking into account people's situations, the times, and the locations. The object of our preaching is either to cause the faith to be born or to allow it to penetrate people's entire lives more deeply, thus building the body of Christ which is brought to perfection by the sacraments of faith.”
(Fundamental Constitutions, V)

In other words, in all that a Dominican does, he or she should be a witness to the reality of Christ's life, death, and resurrection.

This is all because of the need for salvation. When you think about it, what is actually more important than spending eternity with God and the saints in heaven? As good as it is to have stable housing and income, as good as it is to build loving relationships with family and friends, as good as it is to make good and virtuous use of the created things of this world, all of that pales in comparison with the Supreme Good, God Himself, and spending eternity with Him in heaven. The most important thing in this life to prepare for eternal life with the Lord. That is what impelled St. Dominic to preach to the innkeeper. That is what impels Dominicans to preach the Gospel. It's all about the salvation of souls.

Likewise, this impetus to preach—to share the person and teachings of Jesus Christ with others—should guide a Dominican parish. While the Mass, the confessional, the Divine Office, the Rosary, the life of study, and the community are all beautiful aspects of a Dominican parish's life, they all have a purpose, which is to lead us to Christ. In a sense, they are all connected to the holy preaching that characterizes a Dominican's life.

Similarly, this should shape the life of the parishioners at a Dominican parish. In the next few weeks, we will unpack what this can look like. Hopefully, in that way, all of us can respond to the call of the Lord to “make disciples of all nations” (Mt. 28:19).

In Christ and through Holy Father Dominic,

Jr. Peter Martyr Jungwirth, O.P.
