A Jubilee to Remember

LOOKING BACK AT THE JUBILEE

On Tuesday, we celebrate the feast of St. Thomas Aquinas and conclude his Triple Jubilee. It has been 800 years since his birth, 750 years since his death, and 700 years since his canonization. All of these dates fell between 2023-2025. It has been a remarkable blessing here in the Parish while we have celebrated these anniversaries.

With Solemn Masses for each of the anniversaries and with a bulletin series on St. Thomas's life and legacy at the beginning of last year, we reflected on St. Thomas's life and the example that he offers to all of us—truth, wisdom, charity, and purity. Even more blessedly, we had the visit of St. Thomas's skull last month, and we were given the chance to venerate the principal relic of this great doctor of the Church and beseech his intercession for us and our loved ones. The skull that housed the intellect was blessedly in our churches.

We have also plumbed the depths of St. Thomas's wisdom. We had Parish Studies on his teachings on the sacraments, confession in particular, and living the Christian life with holiness. Also, many of last year's bulletin letters were parts of a series on the overflow of Easter graces, a series on charity, and a long series on prayer. This past fall, we also began a Thomistic Reading Group that meets every other Thursday evening at St. Vincent's. Throughout, we reflected on the guidance that St. Thomas offers us through his writings. Along with St. Augustine, St. Thomas Aquinas is arguably the brightest intellect among the heavenly court. The Code of Canon Law even mentions him by name in its description of the important parts of priestly formation (CIC 252§3; the only other saint mentioned by name in the Code is the Blessed Mother). Hopefully, through our examinations of Aquinas's thought, we have come to a deeper understanding of the Truth, who is Jesus Christ.

LOOKING FORWARD TO THE FEAST DAY

As we conclude this Triple Jubilee, let's come together to celebrate this great saint of the Church. On Tuesday, January 28, at 6 PM at St. Vincent's, we will have a Solemn Mass in Honor of St. Thomas Aquinas. During the Triple Jubilee, attending any jubilee ceremony in honor of St. Thomas Aquinas allows a person the chance to receive a plenary indulgence. This, of course, is provided the normal conditions to receive a plenary indulgence: sacramental confession, reception of Holy Communion, prayer for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff.

On this night, we will also have another chance to venerate a relic of St. Thomas Aquinas. While we don't have his skull in our reliquary, we do have a relic of him. Thus, we will bring out this relic for veneration at the Rosary Altar after the Mass.

Simultaneously, we will have an enrollment in the Confraternity of the Angelic Warfare in the Friars' Chapel (after the enrollment, those enrolled will also be able to venerate the relic). This confraternity is attached to the Dominican Order and under the patronage of St. Thomas Aquinas and Our Lady of the Rosary. All the members of the Confraternity share in the graces of the Dominican Order for their purity, and it is open to the faithful regardless of their vocation. Priests, deacons, religious, and the laity are all welcome to enroll in the confraternity.

Through all of this, I pray that St. Thomas Aquinas's example and intercession will continue to guide us through the end of this Triple Jubilee and into the years to come.

St. Thomas Aquinas, pray for us!

In Christ and through the intercession of St. Thomas, Fr. Peter Martyr Yungwirth, O.P.

MUSIC NOTES

The liturgical period of winter Ordinary Time is traditionally referred to as Epiphanytide. In the past, these weeks were styled as "Sundays after Epiphany." During this time, the Schola continues to sing the music of Christmas and Epiphany, extending through Candlemas. Deering, Byrd, and Sheppard represent three very different styles in the English tradition during turbulent years of liturgical and political upheaval. It was because of Deering's Catholicism that he spent a good portion of his life in Brussels, where his compositions took on a continental flavor. Byrd remained in England as a recusant, writing for his own Catholic liturgy as well as the Anglican Church. And although Sheppard was evidently a key figure in Mary Tudor's brief restoration of the elaborate Sarum Rite's, his output likewise includes both Latin and English works.

What is the Angelic Warfare Confraternity?

The AWC is a spiritual community of Christ's faithful for the pursuit and promotion of the virtue of chastity. Men and women are enrolled in order to receive assistance from God in the chaste life, under the patronage of St. Thomas Aquinas & the Blessed Virgin Mary. Each member of the AWC wears either the cord or the medal of St. Thomas, and says daily prayers to receive the special graces that the Lord pours out through the Confraternity. The Confraternity is an apostolate of the Order of Preachers (Dominicans), and is directed by the friars of the Order. It has existed in various forms from the 15th century, and was officially established in 1727 by Pope Benedict XIII.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 12 NOON Candlemas

Join us for a special Solemn Mass celebrating the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, also known as Candlemas.

As part of the Dominican tradition, the congregation is invited to participate in a candlelit procession to the front of the Church. Presentation candles will be provided by the parish. Additionally, there will be a special blessing for personal candles—please bring yours to be blessed during the Mass.

Finding its origin in the local observance of Jerusalem and perhaps the most ancient festival of Our Lady, this Feast was previously styled "the Purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary." It marks the end of the Christmas cycle in the liturgical year and is when crèche scenes are traditionally taken down. The Presentation also is prayed as the Fourth Joyful Mystery of the Rosary.

The Feast commemorates three things: the obedience of Mary to the Mosaic Law's ritual of purification – according to Leviticus 12:6, the period of impurity after giving birth is forty days (hence its celebration forty days after Christmas); the presentation of Jesus in the Temple in which he, as the firstborn son, is consecrated to the Lord according to the Law; and the meeting of the infant Jesus with the aged Simeon – the Occursus Domini, or Hypapante as Eastern Church calls it.
