

Summer Brothers at St. Vincent's & St. Catherine's

June - August 2024

Rev. Br. Linus Martz, O.P.
Parish Summer Deacon

Br. Linus hails from Hanover, PA, where he was raised Catholic and was the second of seven siblings. He studied philosophy at Christendom College before entering the Order of Preachers in 2018. He made solemn profession and was ordained a deacon this past spring. He spends his free time hiking, reading, and drinking coffee.

Br. Jerome Masters, O.P.
Missionaries of Charity, Dominican Foundation

Br. Jerome is from Houston, TX, where he was raised Catholic and is the youngest of two children. He studied communications at The University of Texas at Tyler and worked for his fraternity as a Leadership Consultant before entering the Order in 2022. In his free time, he enjoys walks, spoken word poetry, disc golf, ultimate frisbee, and reading.

Br. Jean-Joseph Greenidge, O.P.
Missionaries of Charity, Provincial Office

Br. Jean-Joseph grew up in Loveland, CO, and met the Catholic Church while studying engineering at Princeton. He completed his master's degree in computer science there before entering the Dominican Order. He made simple profession last August and is grateful for the opportunity to return to NYC as a friar.

Br. Jordan Martin, O.P.
Hospital Ministry (Western Province)

Br. Jordan is from Montréal, Québec. He rediscovered his faith while in college in Montreal, where he majored in Film Production. He entered religious life in Canada in 2013 and left for the U.S. in 2020, taking vows in the Western Province. He enjoys ice hockey and long walking pilgrimages (e.g., the Camino).

Br. Kevin Peter Cantu, O.P.
Hospital Ministry (Western Province)

Br. Kevin Peter, a friar of the Western Province, is very grateful to receive his introduction to hospital ministry through the Eastern Province this summer. Born in Seattle, he moved to Florida when he was young, and he attended Thomas Aquinas College in California. Before entering the Order, he worked in real estate development for several years.
